"Aggies" Capture Title In Section B Series

Farmers Win Final Game from General Office by 9 to 7-Marines and Machinists Lose.

ROSEDALE IS VICTORIOUS

"Aggies," 9; General Office, 7.

By winning its last game of the pos series in Section B yesterday, Agriculture won the title by its defeat of General Office by 3 to 7.

Aggies started off with a big lead of three runs in the first inning and tallied two more in the second, but could not hold this lead as General Office came back at them in the second and on some loose fielding and ond and on some loose fielding and two hits scored five runs. Aggies forged to the front in the third and were never headed thereafter.

Harvey Derick, who did the hurling for Agriculture, was hit hard in spots, but managed to keep the hits well scattered, allowing the Railroaders to bunch hits on him in the second and third innings. Tommy Thompson, who started for General Office, was in hot POINTS OF PHILLIES water most of the time. He was lieved by Jack Nolan in the fifth, did good work, allowing but two hits

That Immanuel Church club got sweet revenge yesterday on the Navy Yard Machinists at the grounds at Georgia avenue and Kenyon street by swamping the Gunmakers in a one-sided slugfest by 14 to 3, and the jolt handed Southeast's championship hopes will be one long remem-bered by the few fans who journeyed to the Heights to witness the conflict.
Eddie Thompson, the "iron man" of the Northwest Leaguers, was in the best of form and set the clouting Navy Yard crew down with five hits, two of which were of the scratchy variety. His port-side sinnts had the Machinists guessing over the entire route, and his ateadiness in the fifth, when the Navy Yard trew threatened to even matters, was a big feature of the lop-sided contest. Capt. Giovannetti attempted to serve 3 1 2 2 6 0 quite successful until the fourth session when the Churchmen bombarded his de when the Churchmen bombarded his de-livery in a lively fashion, Hartley being called upon to stop the slaughter. Poor support in the fifth put Hartley in a hole, the Churchmen gathering two tailles in
